v.

Case No. 4:24-CR-001

JOHN ANTHONY CASTRO

---

MOTION FOR COMPLIANCE WITH FRCrP 32(i)(3)(C)

---

Defendant John Anthony Castro, pro se, moves this Court to comply with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(i)(3)(C) and update the final Presentencing Report (PSR) provided to the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) to properly reflect his status as a United States Veteran. Defendant has a DD-214 reflecting an Honorable Discharge from the United States Armed Forces. The Government, despite slandering Defendant repeatedly with false claims that he was lying, was proven to be lying on this topic and provided no evidence, testimony, or law to contradict Defendant's position that he was a Veteran as defined under federal law.

Although Defendant trusts that God and the law will show his innocence on appellate review, Defendant's status as a United States Veteran has a significant impact regarding which programs and work assignments he is eligible for while in the BOP. Based on the foregoing, Defendant moves this Court to update the Final PSR provided to the BOP to properly reflect his status as a United States Veteran.

Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'John Castro', with a large loop at the beginning and a horizontal stroke at the end.
